1.4 Other information we collect about you and information we receive from third-party sources

We also receive personal information indirectly, from the following sources:

- From ticketing agencies where you buy the tickets for the events and/or festivals which we host;
- From affiliated companies within our group (our “Group”) if they reasonably think that you would be interested in our events and/or festivals;
- From third parties where you have agreed to them sharing your information with us for marketing purposes; and
- Government, tax or law enforcement agencies.

2.1 What do we use your data for?

➤ Service and Operational Purposes:

- to provide you with your event ticket and/or any other goods, services and information that you have requested from us;
- to manage your entry to our events, including age and identification verification;
- to provide you with customer service and support, deal with enquiries or updates to our events and/or services;
- to improve and update our website and to make sure that content from our website is presented to you in the most effective and optimal manner (please view the specific Cookie Notice (ynotfestival.com) for more information).

➤ Third-party promotions: [delete if not relevant]

We will share your personal data with third parties for their own marketing and promotional purposes only after you have given us your consent. If you opt-in to any third-party communications, you can opt out at any time by following instructions in the third-party communications received.

➤ Direct Marketing Purposes (via email/phone)

You may receive commercial offers from the organiser(s). If you do not wish to receive them (anymore), please send an e-mail to the following address:
hello@ynotfestival.com.

Marketing and Communications:

To send you marketing communications via email and/or SMS about our events, festivals, offers, and similar services that may interest you;

To send you important service updates via SMS (e.g. event changes, ticket information, safety alerts).

- Legal Purposes: We may use your information to enable us to enforce our legal rights, and/or to protect the rights, property or safety of our employees and/or other third parties. To ensure your health and safety during the event, we will process any health and/or mobility information you provide to us to comply with our legal obligations. CCTV cameras may be present for the purposes of health and safety and crime prevention and detection.

2.2 Legal grounds for processing your personal information

We will only use your personal data when the law allows us to. Under the DPA 2018 and the GDPR the lawful bases we rely on for processing this information are:

- (a) Your consent. You are able to remove your consent at any time by contacting us at hello@ynotfestival.com;
- (b) We have a contractual obligation (i.e. to provide you with the services you would like to contract us to supply);
- (c) We have a legal obligation (i.e. to detect fraud, or tax purposes);
- (e) We need it to perform a public task;
- (f) We have a legitimate interest (i.e. for direct marketing or improving our services) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.

3. Who will your data be shared with?

We may share this information with:

- Affiliated companies within our Group (in accordance with data sharing agreements in place with those entities) for service and operational purposes;
- Any other third-party outside our Group that you have given your consent to share your information with for marketing purposes;
- Selected third parties that we work with, so that we are able to put on the events you love and choose to attend, such as third party sub-contractors or service providers that supply services for the event (e.g. venue or security staff or travel providers);
- Selected third parties who provide services to us in connection with making your booking such as payment and ticketing providers;
- Affiliated companies within our Group for marketing purposes if we reasonably believe that you would be interested in their event;
- Any other third parties and governmental institutions to comply with our legal obligations and enforce our legal rights (i.e. tax obligations).
- We will share your data with Superstruct Digital Services B.V., an entity in our group, and with third party technology providers including Braze and Looker, who each provide services to us in connection with storing your data and communications in relation to your booking and the festival. This sharing will take place in accordance with data sharing agreements.

Before sharing any of your personal data with external providers, we require our providers to sign an agreement confirming that your data will be kept secure and, where possible, place them under the obligation to act in the capacity of data processor. This means that we determine the purpose for which and the manner in which your data is to be processed and the data processor is only allowed to handle your data according to the instructions and security standards that we follow.

4. How do we protect your personal data?

We take all reasonable and appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect the security of your personal information throughout the course of our business. Technical safeguards are for example restrictive access, encryption, antivirus software, regular testing and evaluation.

In case we transfer your information to a country which is outside the UK or the EEA we have put in place contractual agreements or other measures with any recipients of your information to ensure your personal data will be equally protected.

5. How long will we keep your personal data for?

Your information is securely stored on cloud-based platforms and services including Microsoft Azure, AWS and other secure third-party tools used for social media management and partner collaboration (e.g., Meta Business Suite, LinkedIn, or similar services).

We keep the information we collect only for as long this is necessary for the purpose we collected it. We will then dispose your information by removing all files and back-ups from all personal computers, one drive and hard drive

6. What are your rights?

You are not required to pay any charge for exercising your rights. If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you before you can complain at the relevant Supervisory Authority.

Under data protection law, you can exercise the following rights:

Your right to withdraw consent- You can withdraw your consent at any given time by contacting us at hello@ynotfestival.com.

Your right of access - You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information.

Your right to rectification - You have the right to ask us to rectify personal information you think is inaccurate. You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.
